Martha and I met Jill Steenhuis on Lookout Mountain over twenty years ago, with Camp Desoto and Alpine Camp for Boys being pivotal places in each of our lives.

Staying at the Steenhuis-Ruffato home on the hillside of Aix-en-Provence this past summer, we discovered their unique way of working as a family of artists. We witnessed firsthand Jill and husband Serge's hospitality-driven tutelage of patrons from around the world. Jill extravagantly shares the history and beauty of southern France, particularly the places that inspired and shaped painters like Matisse, Renoir, Van Gogh, Chagall, Picasso and Cezanne.

Please join in welcoming Jill, Sergio & Jimmy, and experience a taste of Provence in Oxford.
