

AN EVENING IN PROVENCE

RECENT WORKS FROM THE SOUTH OF FRANCE

Hosted by Betsy & John Ehrenberger

Jill Steenhuis

an Atlanta native and graduate of Sweet Briar College ('80) who has been living and painting in Aix-en-Provence, France for over 40 years. Her artwork is part of the permanent collections of several museums and important private collections in America. She was selected by the Smithsonian Institute in 2006 as the Cézanne specialist for the 100th anniversary of the artist's death and has appeared on Good Morning America.

Sergio Ruffato

Jill's son and graduate of the Savannah College of Art and Design ('12) was born and raised in Aix-en-Provence, France. He has exhibited his metal sculptures at several prestigious fairs in Paris and Lyon and has public art installations in Marseille and Huntsville, confirming his path as an art ambassador between France and America.

MEET THE ARTISTS

Bring friends and family... the more the merrier!

Join us for hors d'oeuvres, French wine, an exclusive viewing and sale of original oil paintings, drawings, lithographs, silks, jewelry and metal sculptures from the South of France.

BETSY & JOHN EHRENBERGER
3316 CHURCHILL ROAD
RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

Thursday, November 2

Art Reception

5:00 pm – 8:00 pm

(Artist's talk 6:30pm)

Friday, November 3

Open House

10:00 am – 3:00 pm

Contact Betsy (919) 818-3535 • bwehrenberger@gmail.com

A portion of the proceeds benefits Student Life at Saint Mary's School.

