

From Provence to Peachtree
A CELEBRATION OF ART
FROM THE SOUTH OF FRANCE

Irises & the Path
Oil on Canvas - 30" x 36"

Resonating Sunset
Brass & Stone - 72" x 12" x 12"

Jill Steenhuis

Atlanta native and graduate of Sweet Briar College ('80) who has been living and painting in Aix-en-Provence, France for over 40 years. Her artwork is part of the permanent collections of several museums, including The Atlanta History Center, and important private collections in America. She was selected by the Smithsonian Institute in 2006 as the Cézanne specialist for the 100th anniversary of the artist's death and has appeared on Good Morning America.

Sergio Ruffato

Jill's son and graduate of the Savannah College of Art and Design ('12) was born and raised in Aix-en-Provence, France. He has exhibited his metal sculptures at several prestigious fairs in Paris and Lyon and has public art installations in Marseille and Huntsville, confirming his path as an art ambassador between France and America.

Mary Ellen Garrett invites you to

MEET THE ARTISTS

At the exhibition and sale of their original artwork
from the South of France.

CHEROKEE TOWN & COUNTRY CLUB
155 WEST PACES FERRY RD, NW
ATLANTA, GA 30305

Thursday, November 7th 2024

5:00 pm – 8:00 pm

6:30pm Artist Talk

In honor of Jill & Sergio's dear friend and mentor Jenny Pruitt, a portion of the sales will go to the Atlanta History Center.

Kindly reply by Wednesday, October 30th

rsvp.artinprovence@gmail.com

Dress Code: Men are required to wear jacket and dress slacks. Ties, which are always preferred, are not mandatory. Ladies are expected to wear social or business attire. Absolutely no denim or sportswear.

Parking: When you pull onto the property, please use the left lane to check-in with security, referencing the event title. Feel free to self-park or use the complimentary valet service (no tipping necessary).