

You are invited to join in celebrating
AN EVENING OF ART IN PROVENCE
WITH JILL STEENHUIS & SERGIO RUFFATO

Saturday in the Aix Vegetable Market,
Oil on Canvas, 18"x14"

Sweet Briar Cross, Brass with patina &
stone base 29"x16"x5"

Elsie & Melvin Katz and the non-profit beneficiary the American Heart Association invite you to a viewing and sale of original oil paintings, drawings, lithographs, jewelry and metal sculptures from the South of France.

HERMITAGE COUNTRY CLUB
1248 HERMITAGE RD
MANAKIN-SABOT, VA 23103

Wednesday, October 30, 2024

5:00 – 8:00pm (Artist's talk 6:30pm)

A cash bar will be available

Kindly reply by Wednesday, October 23rd
rsvp.artinprovence@gmail.com

Meet the Artists!

Jill Steenhuis, an Atlanta native and graduate of Sweet Briar College ('80) has been living and painting in Aix-en-Provence, France for over forty years. Her artwork is part of the permanent collections of several museums and important private collections in America. She was selected by the Smithsonian Institute in 2006 as the Cézanne specialist for the 100th anniversary of the artist's death and has appeared on Good Morning America.

artinprovence.com

Sergio Ruffato, Jill's son, and graduate of the Savannah College of Art and Design ('12) with a BFA in sculpture, was born and raised in Aix-en-Provence, France. He has exhibited his metal sculptures around the USA and at several prestigious fairs in Paris and Lyon. He has public art installations in the city of Marseille and Huntsville Botanical Gardens, confirming his path as an art ambassador between France and America.

sergeruffato.com